The Star Offers Fans More Than the Play-by-Play

"Washingtonians tend to get themselves involved with the Redskins," The Star's Fearless Spectator, Steve Daly, wrote last January. He was warning newcomers what they could expect from the home team, and continued, "Neutrality is unfashionable."

The Star's Redskins coverage, headed by award-winning football reporter Steve Guback, gives you all the news and background you need to be an informed fan.

Columnists Morrie Siegel and David Israel provide the colorful commentary needed to keep the juices flowing throughout the season.

And for the fan who wants to get personally involved, The Star offers a weekly PRO PICKS contest where your knowledge of football can help you win $500.

The Washington Redskins organization boasts a proud tradition. Founder George Preston Marshall headed football's fifth oldest organization in 1932 and helped guide the NFL through rough times. Marshall was responsible for the two-division system with a championship game, a Pro Bowl featuring all-stars, elaborate halftime shows, the first team marching band and first rally song. The Redskins were the first pro team to have all their games televised and home games have been sell-outs since the 1960's.

President Edward Bennett Williams persuaded Vince Lombardi to Washington to revive the winning tradition, but cancer claimed Lombardi after one successful season. In 1971, a new, exciting tradition was born with the arrival of George Allen. Since 1971, the Redskins have a 58-25-1 record, including a 35-8-1 (.807) mark at home. Washington has the finest football training facility under one roof, Redskin Park, and have been in the NFL play-offs in five of their six consecutive winning seasons. No team has appeared before Monday Night TV's national audience more than the Redskins since Allen came to Washington, and the Burgundy and Gold have won 9 of those 10 games. One of football's biggest attractions nationwide, the Redskins have millions of fans, young and old, who are proud to proclaim "Hail to the Redskins, Hail Victory!"

The Coaching Staff

GEORGE ALLEN

GENERAL MANAGER and HEAD COACH

The Redskins winningest coach, George Allen, begins his seventh season in the Nation's Capital with a 58-25-1 (.699) record. In 1976, Allen climbed into 10th place on the all-time coaching list with a career total of 107-42-5 (.711).

Coach Allen holds the distinction of being the only coach with 100 wins to never have had a losing season. He has also won his season opener in all 11 seasons and has sold out every home game since coming to Washington in 1971.

Allen took over a Washington club that had had only one winning season in the last 15 years and turned them into perennial league title contenders. He has guided the Redskins to the playoffs in five of his six seasons, and his six consecutive winning seasons is a mark unequalled by the Redskins since pre-World War II years.

It is Allen who has been responsible for the "Redskinmania" which has swept the Washington, D.C. area, making this a football capital. At RFK Stadium, the Redskins under Allen have a 35-8-1 record (.807) and the fans are greatly responsible with their roaring approval.

On Monday Night television, Coach Allen has appeared with his Redskins 10 times in six seasons and won 9 of the nationwide games, including the last five in a row. It was on Monday Night TV against the Eagles in 1976 that Allen notched his 100th career win.

With his constant motto "The Future is Now," Coach Allen has made more trades than any coach in the history of football. In his 11 years, Allen has made 131 trades, with 81 of those coming in his Washington stint as head coach.

Allen's first coaching job was as an assistant coach at Ann Arbor, Mich., high school in 1947. In 1948, he became head coach at Morningside, Iowa, College and in 1951, Allen took over as head coach at Whittier, College in California. He became offensive end coach for the Rams in 1957 and the following year he joined George Halas and the Bears. In 1963, when he became head defensive coach of the Bears, he fielded the best defense in pro football en route to the NFL Championship. Following the World Championship game after the defense picked off 5 passes, Allen was awarded the game ball, an unheard-of honor for an assistant coach.

In 1966, Allen was named head coach of the Los Angeles Rams, and he proceeded by giving them their first winning season in 8 years, building around his "Fearsome Foursome". He won his first game as a head coach, beating Atlanta 19-14. In 1967, Allen brought the Rams the best record in the history of the franchise, producing 11 wins, 1 loss and 2 ties and was named Coach of the Year by UPI, Sporting News and the Washington TD Club, as well as Co-Coach of the Year by AP. The overall mark in 1967 was 18-2-2. He won 10 games in 1968 and followed with an 11-3 mark in 1969 and a Western Title. He finished his LA tenure with a 9-4-1 mark and an overall record of 49-17-4 (.729) and the distinction of winningest coach in Ram history. His road record of 27-7-2 was the NFL's best.

Allen came to Washington in 1971 and immediately turned losers into winners. He guided the team to a 9-4-1 record, which was Washington's best record in 29 years and only the second winning season in 15 years. He won Coach of the Year honors for his achievements. The trip to the playoffs was the first time in 26 years for the Redskins in post-season play.

In 1972, the Redskins Super Bowl year, Allen compiled a 11-3 mark, which was the most wins in the 36-year history of the Redskins. The previous high was a 10-1 mark in 1942. The defense shined in the playoffs, with a 16-3 win over Green Bay and a 26-3 pasting of Dallas for the NFC Championship. Allen again earned Coach of Year honors.

In 1973, Allen guided the team to a co-championship of the NFC East division with a 10-4 mark. Again in 1974, the Redskins won 10, lost 4 and shared the co-championship, this time with St. Louis. This made four straight trips to the playoffs for the Redskins, a feat never equalled before in the 38-year history of the franchise. In 1975, two overtime losses meant the difference between 10-4 and 8-6 and the Redskins missed the playoffs.

Last year, the Redskins won their final four contests and 5 of the final 6 to finish 10-4 and earn another trip to the playoffs. The Redskins swept St. Louis and won their first game ever in Texas Stadium against the Cowboys.

The trip to the playoffs was the fifth in six years for Allen and seventh playoff visit in his career. He was honored as Coach of the Year in the NFC by the Kansas City 101 Club for the 2nd time.

George Herbert Allen was born April 29, 1922 in Detroit, Mich., and attended Lake Shore High, earning nine letters; three each in football, basketball and track. He was captain and all-conference in basketball.

In 1943 and 1944, under V-12 Naval Programs, he attended Alma College and played end. He transferred to Marquette, again playing football as a receiver. He completed his undergraduate work at the University of Michigan, playing baseball and wrestling. He received his B.A. in 1947 and his M.A. in 1948 from Michigan, where he was a member of Sigma Delta Psi, national honorary athletic and scholarship fraternity. He also did graduate work on his doctorate at the University of Southern California. Allen accepted an Honorary Doctor of Laws degree from his first head coaching job at Morningside, Iowa (Sioux City.)

Allen, author of 7 books, has initiated three scholarships; at Morningside, at Gallaudet, the nation's leading school for the deaf; and a scholarship for an Indian youth. He started the scholarship at Gallaudet in 1973 and the other two in 1974.

Allen is also active in many community affairs and contributes much time to special projects. For the sixth straight year, he was chairman of the Metropolitan Summer Jobs for Needy Youth campaign, leading the nation every year.

In May 1951, Allen married the former Etty Lumbroso. They have four children: George, Jr. (25), law clerk for the Hon. Judge Glen M. Williams, U. S. District Court, Western District of Virginia; Gregory (23), a graduate student at George Mason University, Bruce (20), a senior at the University of Richmond, and Jennifer (16), a junior in high school.

Probably the best-conditioned Coach in the NFL, Allen is 6-1 and weighs 175 pounds. He believes "The first step to victory is conditioning. You can never waste time by conditioning." Allen himself exercises daily and jogs several miles as well.

BILLY KILMER Quarterback

UCLA 15th Year

17

Born: Sept. 5, 1939, Topeka, Kan.
Became Redskin: Jan. 28, 1971. First trade George Allen made in Washington was to get Kilmer from New Orleans, giving up Tom Roussel and 4th and 8th round draft picks in 1972.
NFL Games Played In: 157
Pro Career: One of the smartest and guttsiest quarterbacks to ever play. Entered the NFL as a shotgun-style QB and gained almost 1,000 yards rushing in first two seasons, scoring 15 TD's himself by running. An auto accident forced him out of action in his third year (1963) and almost forever. Also missed all of 1965 season. He was selected by New Orleans from the 49'ers in the 1967 expansion draft. In four years at New Orleans, Kilmer passed for 7,500 yards and 47 TD's.

Came to Washington right after Allen arrived in 1971 and has been football's winningest quarterback the past six seasons. He was the Redskins MVP in 1971 and sportswriters' Most Courageous Athlete, an award he is always considered for every year because of his extreme desire to play and win. Has led Redskins to six consecutive winning seasons, five trips to the playoffs, an NFC Championship and a trip to Super Bowl VII.

In his six years at Washington, he has won 45 of 60 games (.750). Injuries have slowed him down at times, but never stopped him. Courageous athlete who has a long list of games played in (and usually won) when in pain.

In 1976, he passed for 1,252 yards and 12 TD's after coming back from a severely bruised shoulder and ribs to lead the team for four consecutive wins and into playoffs.

His 1,463 career completions is the 20th best total in NFL history. Should go over the 20,000 yard mark in passing yardage this year. Has passed for 140 TD's and scored 22 himself, one as a receiver.

DID YOU KNOW . . . . The first player to rush for 200 yards in a professional game was Cliff Battles of the Boston Redskins. He carried only 16 times, but gained 215 yards, on October 28, 1933, against the New York Giants to set an NFL mark which stood for 17 years.

The Super Bowl

In 1970, the NFL was divided into two 13-team conferences, comprised of the 26 teams formerly competing in the National Football League and the American Football League. Each conference was further divided into three divisions, the winner of each conference to be determined by a playoff of the three division winners plus the second place team within the conference with the best record. The winner of the two conferences meet in the NFL title game — The Super Bowl.

FUTURE SUPER BOWL SITES. . . . This year's championship will be played in New Orleans. Super Bowl XIII will be at the Orange Bowl in Miami, Fla. to be followed by Super Bowl XIV in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Pro Bowls for the future include games in Tampa Bay, the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum and Honolulu's Aloha Stadium.

FIRST GAME HERO . . . . In the first game the Redskins played in Washington in 1937, there were four future Hall of Famers on the Redskins, but the hero of the 13-3 win over New York was Riley Smith. Smith scored all the points by kicking two field goals, intercepting a pass and returning it 60 yards for a TD and then kicking the PAT.

STRANGE BUT TRUE . . . . In the Redskins 10-1 season in 1942, the lone loss was a bizarre 14-7 upset by New York. The Redskin defense allowed no first downs, only one yard rushing, and one completed pass. That one completion was for a TD and a pass interception for a TD accounted for the winning points.

Peoples game plan has led to a ¼ billion prescriptions.

SINCE 1905 when the first Peoples Drug Store appeared, the Peoples family of drug stores has filled a quarter-billion prescriptions—one at a time.

That's pretty impressive but like all winning scores, it was no accident. It's the result of the peoples team of professional pharmacists and their dedication to the highest standards of excellence in serving five generations of Washingtonians.

Today, as in the past, your Peoples pharmacist stands ready to serve you—or consult with your doctor. Because winning is a full-time job.

Redskin Playoff Record

1971 Redskins—NFC Wild Card Winner (9-4-1)
Dec. 26, 1971—Redskins 20, San Francisco 24-Away

Redskins take a 10-3 halftime lead but fail to cash in on scoring opportunities. A Brodie to Washington 78-yard scoring pass ignites a winning 49er counter-attack.

1972 Redskins—Eastern Division Champions, NFC (11-3-0)
Playoff Game—Dec. 24, 1972—Redskins 16, Green Bay 3-Home

Powerful Redskin defense cuts off Green Bay running attack and the Redskins win their first playoff game under the new NFL Championship rules. Billy Kilmer hit Roy Jefferson for a score and Curt Knight kicked three field goals.

NFC Championship—Dec. 31, 1972—Redskins 26, Dallas 3-Home

The Redskins win their first conference championship in 30 years with a smashing victory over the defending conference and Super Bowl champion Cowboys. Kilmer flipped two touchdowns to Charley Taylor and Knight booted a playoff record 4 field goals. Defense was outstanding all day.

Super Bowl VII—Jan. 14, 1973—Redskins 7, Miami 14-L.A.

Undefeated Miami cooled off the Redskins attack and the Dolphins became Super Bowl champions with the first undefeated season by any NFL team since the 1941 Chicago Bears.

1973 Redskins—Eastern Division Co-Champions, NFC (10-4)
Dec. 22, 1973—Redskins 20, Minnesota 27-Away

Both Dallas and the Redskins finished the regular season with identical 10-4 records, but because of the point differential in head-to-head play, the Redskins were assigned the NFC "wild card" berth. The Redskins were led by quarterback Billy Kilmer, who had spent all of that week in a Washington, D.C. hospital with a stomach ailment that required surgery after the season. Vikings rallied from 7-3 halftime deficit and 10-10 4th quarter tie.

1974 Redskins—Eastern Division Co-Champions, NFC (10-4)
Dec. 22, 1974—Redskins 10, Los Angeles 19-Away

Although both the Redskins and Cardinals finished with identical records of 10-4 in the NFC's Eastern Division, the Redskins were again awarded the "wild card" berth since they lost to the Cardinals twice during regular season play. Despite holding a 10-7 lead at halftime, the Redskins were unable to score in the second half and faltered 19-10.

1976 Redskins—NFC Wild Card Winner (10-4)
Dec. 18, 1976—Redskins 20, Minnesota 35-Away

The Burgundy and Gold returned to the playoffs for the fifth time in the last six years facing Minnesota, who sported the best record in the NFC. The Redskins fell behind in the opening eighty-one seconds on a Viking TD and were unable to make up a 21-3 halftime deficit, despite scoring 17 points in the second half.
